

Central Studio Hotel Sydney Wins ‘Top Engaged Hotel’ at Trip.com Oceania Awards 2025

Central Studio Hotel Sydney has been recognised as a winner in the ‘Top Engaged Hotel’ category at the Trip.com Oceania Annual Awards 2025, a regional accolade celebrating excellence across the hospitality industry. Organised by Trip.com, the awards honour hotels that demonstrate strong partnership, consistent engagement, and the ability to drive performance on the platform while delivering outstanding traveller experiences.

The ‘Top Engaged Hotel’ category recognises a hotel’s strong partnership with Trip.com, highlighting its active contribution to driving booking growth, optimising visibility, and supporting overall platform performance. It reflects a commitment to collaboration, commercial alignment, and sustained engagement that benefits both the hotel and Trip.com.

This recognition reflects Central Studio Hotel Sydney’s ongoing focus on building a strong and effective partnership with Trip.com, while consistently delivering stellar customer service. The hotel remains committed to providing seamless, guest-focused stays through attentive service, operational reliability, and thoughtful guest experiences that drive positive reviews and repeat stays. This dedication to service excellence continues to support strong engagement on the platform and high levels of customer satisfaction.

The award was presented during the Trip.com Awards Ceremony and Customer Appreciation Event held on Thursday, 16 April 2026, in Sydney, Australia. It was accepted on behalf of Central Studio Hotel Sydney by Ericko Hanggara, Hotel Manager of Central Studio Hotel Sydney.

With this recognition, Central Studio Hotel Sydney continues to strengthen its reputation as a trusted partner and dependable hospitality provider, delivering consistent performance on the platform while maintaining a strong focus on exceptional guest service and satisfaction.

Experience Central Studio Hotel Sydney, offering comfortable and convenient stays in the heart of Sydney, ideal for both business and leisure travellers.